March MoM Door Prizes

The winners at the March 21st MoM (at LAC) were: David Stoe, Jennifer Huang, Paul Clemens, and Vinod Sharma. Special thanks to Mattel for the “007 Scene it” games and also End to End Networks for the great Microsoft presentation laser pointers. At this meeting our fearless leader Léo Lefebvre asked the audience to start coming to meetings with questions on the System i that they would like answers to (whether it be simple or just... “Has any one else done this?” or “Is there another way?”) The question tonight was “How do you receive email on System i?” If you have the solution please drop us an email and we will publish the answer in the next issue of the magazine. — Wende
